

Tri-State Advanced Soil Health Training: Workshop #6
Aggregating Soil Health Principles, August 26, 2020

Conference room at Mariner's Village at Carlyle Lake (1 Resort Drive, Carlyle, IL 62231)
All times are in Central Time

- 8:30 AM Optional light breakfast and networking time
- 9:00 AM Strategies for Pulling it all Together – Facilitated by John Pike, Agronomist at Pike Ag, LLC
- 9:30 AM Illinois Agriculture Climate Assessment (Virtual) – Jim Angel, former State Climatologist for Illinois
- 10:15 AM Break
- 10:30 AM Communicating Conservation (Virtual) - Dr. Linda Prokopy, Professor of Natural Resources Social Science at Purdue University
- 11:30 AM Lunch
- 12:30 PM What's the Deal with Soil Health Tests? - Dr. Stacy Zuber, Illinois NRCS State Soil Health Specialist
- 1:30 PM Cover Crop Research and Opportunities from SARE (Virtual) – Dr. Rob Myers, Regional Director of Extension Programs for North Central Region Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (SARE) Program
- 2:30 PM Break
- 2:45 PM Ideas for Impactful Local Soil Health Demonstration and Education: The Clinton County ILFB Project – Terry Wyciskalla and Cliff Schuette
- 4:15 PM Wrap up and closing of program
- 5:30 PM Optional Dinner

Accommodations are provided for the night of August 26 at Mariner's Village at Carlyle Lake (1 Resort Drive, Carlyle, IL 62231)